

Online Harvard Courses 2022

Online learning is one of the greatest benefits we feel we can offer to alumni. It enables us to offer this benefit to our entire Alumni Network wherever they live around the globe. Learning modules and live webinars with new (international) faculty to keep your management knowledge sharp and up-to-date, are part of our online learning platform.

Since 2012 we offer online Harvard modules to our alumni with a membership package. The modules deliver game-changing enhancements in collaborative learning. It supports the natural flow of learning across your organization by delivering:

- Formal learning and development – offering structured content on leading management topics
- Informal learning on-demand – providing moment of need performance support
- Collaborative learning –learning with and from others

The modules, addressing daily management issues, show how to apply concepts, tools and advice.

Harvard modules 2022 have a validity period of 6 months (May through October 2022).

In 2022 you can choose two of the following modules:

- Ethics at Work
- Goal Setting
- Strategy planning and Execution
- Managing your Boss
- Diversity, Inclusion and Belonging
- Innovation Implementation

If you want to get access to the online modules, please contact Alumni Relations.
